West Hurley Man Hurt In Route 28 Collision

A West Hurley man was admitted to Kingston Hospital early Monday night with injuries suffered in a collision on Route 28 about two miles from Kingston involving four vehicles.

LeRoy W. Herdman, 27, of West Hurley, was reported in fair condition today.

Collision Near Exit

According to Deputy Sheriffs Frank Crnkovic and Charles McCullough of the Ulster County sheriff's office, Herdman's car and a 1958 sedan operated by William McManis, 32, of Jersey City, N. J., collided near the exit road from the Skytop Motel, located on the bluff on the north side of Route 28.

The officers said Herdman was proceeding toward Kingston on Route 28, and McManis was coming out of the motel exit road.

Following the collision, the 1958 suburban operated by Herdman reportedly continued its progress, smashing into gas pumps at the filling station on the south side of the highway, operated by Burton E. Deitz, 55, still alive drove exhausted rescuers into the hills east of here after a badly needed night's rest.

Search activity temporarily halted Monday night in fear that some of the men would themselves perish if they stayed in the hills through the subzero night.

Search Continues For Final Airman

HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP)—For the fourth frigid day searchers in jeeps and planes and on horseback headed into the storm-swept northwestern Utah mountains looking for the last of eight men who parachuted from a crippled air force plane.

The dim hope that Capt. Donald Liggett, 40, of Indianapolis, Ind., is still alive drove exhausted rescuers into the hills east of here after a badly needed night's rest.

Search activity temporarily halted Monday night in fear that some of the men would themselves perish if they stayed in the hills through the subzero night.

Rockefeller Is For Conference With Governors

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Nelson Rockefeller flies to Brazil today after a quiet, unofficial visit to Caracas to wind up his Venezuelan vacation.

The Republican governor-elect of New York told newsmen in Caracas he would like to confer before his inauguration with his Democratic neighbors—Govs. Robert Meyner of New Jersey and Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut—on problems of mutual interest.

Rockefeller named commuter transportation as one of the chief matters needing joint attention. He also mentioned water supply and port facilities.

The hospital laboratory will have its own pathologist and other necessary personnel.

Magistrates Are To Meet Nov. 20

The Ulster County Magistrates Association will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 20, at the local courthouse.

The meeting was advanced one week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Enrollment for the new justice training program, part of the adult education program, will be conducted this Thursday night at the meeting.

The training sessions, one a week, will begin at the Chambers School during the second week in January. They will continue for 10 weeks.

11 Probably Active TB Cases Reported Among 9,954 X-Rays

A report of the 1958 Chest X-ray survey held in Kingston was given at a meeting of the Ulster County TB and Health Association held at the office, 74 John Street, on Monday night.

Miss Hazel M. Steed, executive director, reported that out of 9,954 people X-rayed, a total of 182 persons showed initial chest X-ray findings, of which were 11 probably active tuberculosis; 7 suspected tuberculosis; 48 probably inactive tuberculosis; 16 tumors; 33 cardio-vascular conditions and 67 miscellaneous conditions.

Miss Steed said that hundreds of volunteers from the 13 wards of the city were recruited by the TB Association to help make the survey one of the most successful. Posters, fliers, milk bottle slips and other items were purchased by the Christmas Seals group and distributed, while newspapers and radio stations did a big job in publicizing the dates and places where all adults could have a free chest X-ray.

During the meeting Doctor Frederick W. Holcomb Sr. pres-prised their refusal to deal with the East German satellite regime.

Charges Undermining

Russian spokesman J. W. Beburov charged that a Western campaign of anti-Soviet propaganda and activity to undermine the Soviet government is "not only endangering the Soviet Union and the other Socialist (Communist) lands but also all humanity."

The news conference, attended by more than 300 Western and Communist newsmen, was another step in the new Soviet offensive to drive Allied occupation forces out of West Berlin.

Points to Tension

Beburov said international tension would be eased if the West stopped trying to send Russian emigre spies into the Soviet Union.

Earlier today Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, charged that West Berlin was a hotbed of espionage activity against the Soviet bloc.

The Soviet campaign against the Allied occupation already has won a significant propaganda victory for Nikita Khrushchev.

The East German Communists are swarming.

The West Germans are worried. The United States, Britain and France have been forced to report their refusal to deal with the East German satellite regime.

In the Texas and Oklahoma panhandle the snow turned to slush then froze again Monday night, making driving treacherous.

2 Gamblers Are Indicted, Refuse Answers on Chief

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—

Two convicted gamblers are under indictment for refusing to answer questions in a grand jury investigation that centered on a former police chief.

James DiDonato, 44, and Frank Capobianco, 40, were indicted on charges of criminal contempt by the Schenectady County Grand Jury Monday.

The jury has been investigating the circumstances surrounding the retirement of Police Chief William F. Brandt, who left office with a pension during a gambling investigation.

DiDonato and Capobianco were arrested Monday and released on $2,500 bail each. They were ordered to appear in State Supreme Court today on the charges.

Both men are from Schenectady. They went before the Grand Jury several times. Justice Felix Aulisi of State Supreme Court ordered the two men to talk but they refused.

Brandt, 58, was appointed police chief in 1955 and left office last April. He has since left the city and Grand Jury efforts to locate him for questioning have failed.

The jury said in an August report that Brandt had sought help from gamblers in getting himself appointed. The jury also said that City Manager Arthur Blessing had shown poor judgment in appointing Brandt.

Blessing also was criticized for allowing Brandt to retire on pension. Blessing acted after hearing recordings of alleged conversations between Brandt and gamblers.

The Grand Jury said Monday that the file on Brandt should be kept open and that any "positive evidence" brought to light be presented to another jury.

Benedictine Board Needs Time

No Action Through '59 on Laboratory

Establishment by the Benedictine Hospital of its own laboratory will be delayed through 1959, it was learned today.

Dr. Douw S. Meyers, chairman of the City of Kingston Laboratory board, has been notified of the hospital's decision, and a copy of the letter was received today by Alderman-at-Large Harold L. Kaye, who was acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Edwin F. Radel, who was out of the city.

It was decided Friday at a meeting of the laboratory board and representatives of the hospital that a date would be announced today if the hospital decided to proceed next spring with its laboratory project.

The letter noted that the hospital's board of managers, in reviewing details pertinent to setting up the laboratory, because of technical factors, and other problems, more time would be needed, and it was decided to delay action through 1959 as had been requested by Mayor Radel.

Proposed establishment of the laboratory became known last week when the laboratory board announced a Nov. 13 meeting to discuss the effects of the hospital's proposed action on the laboratory's annual budget, its personnel, and operational procedures.

The hospital laboratory will have its own pathologist and other necessary personnel.

Grange Proposes Farmers Vote on Type of Aid Given

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—The National Grange proposed today that producers of each farm commodity be allowed to choose through referenda the type of farm-aid program they deem best suited to the commodity.

The farm organization has suggested in convention resolutions that such programs be managed by organized producers, under guidance of the government.

The Grange declared that agriculture faces the prospect of over-production for years to come.

Hence, it said, effective ways must be found to adjust production to markets or else farmers will suffer economically.

"We reaffirm the Grange's position favoring self-help programs developed along commodity-by-commodity lines. Therein lies the power to manage our production and our marketing in such a manner as to provide consumers with an abundance without overabundance at prices reasonable to both producers and consumers," the resolution said.

This Grange approach to the farm problem has not found favor with Eisenhower administration farm officials.

The farm organization called upon the states to help halt a trend toward a strong federal government by assuming their full financial and other responsibilities.

Along this same line, the convention said the U.S. Supreme Court has been making decisions which "appear to invade the prerogatives of states (and) which are generally considered as usurping the field of the legislative branch of government."

Red Embassy Talks to Press

Charges West Germany Real Hosted of Spies

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Embassy in East Berlin held its first news conference in four years today in an effort to dramatize Russian charges that West Berlin is a hotbed of Western spies against the Russian Communist regime.

The Soviets trotted out two Russians—a 29-year-old Soviet army lieutenant and a Moscow circus acrobat—who they claimed had deserted to the West, broadcast the Russian Communist regime.

Raised to Cardinalate With 22 Others

Archbishop O'Hara's Interests Are in Poor, Schools, Writing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—He answered the doorbell's ring himself, this tall, thin clergyman with the genial fan-like crinkles at the corners of his eyes.

He took the wraps from his surprised visitors and squirmed them into the library.

It was thought so unusual for a man of his station to do this, that these other callers, similarly astonished, made news of it among those they knew.

The wonder of so many of his people eventually came to the attention of the gentle priest.

"But how can I ever meet the poor unless I answer the doorbell myself?" he said to an inquiring friend.

Both the action and the words were characteristic of the Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., archbishop of the Roman Catholic dioceses of Philadelphia.

Gives of Himself
This gift of giving himself, a warmth going out to all is but one of many in the makeup of the 70-year-old archbishop who with 22 others was raised to the cardinalate today.

Linguist, scholar, administrator, writer, all are part of a work which he defines as the highest stewardship that can be held on earth.

News of his elevation came while the archbishop still slept. Members of his ecclesiastical circle were quickly told, and among the archbishop's people already about the day's business there was much rejoicing. Spokesmen said the archbishop likely would speak his mind later.

Archbishop O'Hara assumed his spiritual authority over the Philadelphia diocese of more than one million Catholics in 1952, succeeding the late Dennis Cardinal Dougherty.

Under his leadership, 12 free Catholic high schools were completed, 33 new parishes founded, enrollment in parochial grade schools was increased from 41,000 in 1950 to more than 200,000.

Branching out, Archbishop O'Hara established two schools for mentally retarded children, something quite new. They became a national pattern.

His work has many other facets—the Christian Home and Family Committee to foster Catholic family life; a social center for Spanish-speaking Catholics; the confraternity of Christian doctrine to further the religious training of children not in Catholic schools.

Deeprooted Love

His roots are deep in education. His first fame came as prefect of religion at Notre Dame from 1918 to 1933 and later president of the college for five years.

A story is told of his remarkable memory.

"Joe," the archbishop would say as he walked briskly across the campus, "I haven't seen you at communion in six weeks. Don't you think it's about time you went to confession?"

Joe, more than likely would believe his roommate gave him away.

Archbishop O'Hara was born May 1, 1888, in Ann Arbor, Mich., son of a country lawyer and school teacher who eventually went into foreign service as a diplomat. Even before he came to manhood the future illustrious churchman had traveled widely in Europe and South America, getting to know the languages along the way.

He became fluent in Spanish and Portuguese. Years later this skill was to help him run a news service for Central and South America while he was at Notre Dame.

Notre Dame Graduate
The archbishop was graduated from Notre Dame in 1911. He did graduate and seminary work at the Catholic University of America and Holy Cross College and was ordained Sept. 9, 1916.

His first pastorate was in Philadelphia. Within a year he had been named prefect of religion at Notre Dame. He stayed at the university until 1939, serving as dean of the College of Commerce, vice president of the university, and in time president.

He gave up his high place at Notre Dame to become his church's military delegate to the armed forces of the United States, Army and Navy diocese. The position placed him in charge of 500 Catholic chaplains.

He was consecrated a bishop in 1940.

In March, 1945 he was appointed bishop of Buffalo, an office he held until 1951.

When he came to Philadelphia he added a highly readable feature section and picture page to the archdiocese newspaper, the Catholic Standard and Times.

Newsmen have found him ever sympathetic toward their problems and a champion of the right of all people everywhere to know the truth about the complex world they live in.

Establishing Authority

TCUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Here's how an unidentified Tucson teacher described his method of establishing discipline in his classroom: "Get into your high school classroom before the class shows up the first day. Put the waste basket near the door. After the classroom is filled you march in late. Slam the door, kick the waste basket across the room and thunder in your loudest voice, 'Who left that thing in front of the door?'

MAYFIELD, N. Y. (AP)—LeRoy Sherman, 44, of (77 Fairview Pl.) Amsterdam, was killed Monday night on Route 29 near here when his automobile missed a curve, went over an embankment and sheared off a power pole.

A passenger, Howard Jay Smith, 46, who State Police identified as a resident of Marcy State Hospital at Utica, was reported in fair condition at Nathan Littauer Hospital in Gloversville. Troopers said they are checking to determine Smith's status at the Utica institution.

King Attacker Is Committed to State Mental Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—The woman who stabbed the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro integration leader, has been sent to an insane asylum.

The woman, 45-year-old Mrs. Isola Ware Curry, also a Negro, was committed Monday to Mather State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Beacon, N. Y.

A Bellevue Hospital report said she was "not of sound mind." Mrs. Curry stabbed King Sept. 30 in a Harlem department store. She never gave a coherent reason for the attack.

King, 29, who led the Montgomery, Ala., anti-segregation bus boycott, was under treatment two weeks for the wound.

THE BERLIN GAMBIT

For once in their lives, the East German Communist puppets showed better sense than their Kremlin overlords.

In pulling away from Russian threats to make trouble over Allied-held West Berlin, the East Germans recognized the cold facts of life in that area.

Premier Khrushchev has been saying that four-power rule should end and Berlin pass to Communist control, since it lies 110 miles inside East Germany and since he claims the West has violated the Potsdam agreement setting up four-power rule.

But East German Premier Grotewohl wisely made plain that Khrushchev could not have meant what the West said he meant. He backed off.

He seems to understand what Khrushchev may have forgotten, that of all the beleaguered spots on earth West Berlin is the one we and our allies are most staunchly committed to defend.

We did it once under extremely hazardous conditions in the ingenious Berlin blockade of 1948-49. There cannot be the slightest shred of doubt that we and our friends would fight to preserve West Berlin's freedom and the safety of its lines to the West.

We are in Berlin by right. And both the Berliners and the West German government want us there.

When we mounted the Berlin blockade, West Germany still was weakened and scarred by war. But in the decade that has passed, the West Germans have grown strong and today they are armed again.

In any showdown over Berlin, the Communists would have to contend with the Germans in strength, as well as the forces of America, Britain and France.

Whatever Khrushchev's motives in making his irresponsible declaration—a wish to impress his Polish Red visitors, to compel Western recognition of East Germany or to force a new conference on German unity—he chose a dangerous course.

And, whether it was bluff or real threat, it was bound to fail. All that has been gained is that once more the world has had pointed up the absurdity of this West Berlin island of freedom living surrounded by the dark waters of communism.

NO CAUSE FOR CHEERS

Reports now indicate that this year's federal deficit probably will be well below the $12 billion figure that was forecast until recently. The reason, however, isn't that government spending is declining. It is, instead, that the upturn in business activity and personal incomes are raising tax revenues.

A reduced deficit will be good news. But it shouldn't lead to any cheering. At best, the government will go into the hole by billions. That means more national debt. That means more danger of inflation. That means ever-poorer chances for tax reduction.

If the next Congress continues the spending sprees of its predecessors, we'll keep right on moving toward a further debased currency.

THAT FLAG DECISION

When Congress passed a bill authorizing statehood for Alaska, there was a great flowering of news and comment about that territory. There was much talk of all that would have to be changed—among other things, maps and textbooks and a variety of games about the states. And the flag, Old Glory, it was noted by one and all, would have to be redesigned.

At the time there came a spate of ideas, ranging from a mere rearrangement of stars on the rectangular field to proposals for an entirely new design. Then the furor died away, as furors do, and other things captured the public fancy.

Question: What is now the status of efforts to redesign the flag? There are more important things to wonder about, granted. But there also are less important

These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
FINANCIERS AND ECONOMISTS

When it comes to a discussion of money and gold, the economist thinks in broad terms of the relationship of the total economy of one nation to that of another and how that relationship might affect the flow of goods and services and the well-being of peoples. The financier cannot concern himself with so broad a viewpoint. He is concerned with what the situation immediately means to him as a business operation.

Money in the United States is growing steadily cheaper as a characteristic of the inflation. Money is various things. It is a medium of exchange. It is a receipt for goods and services. It is a method of transferring wealth. It may have intrinsic value if it is merely the product of a printing press.

A government bond is really an equivalent of money. It is a promise by a government to repay a loan with interest, but no government issues such bonds stipulating what kind of money it will use to repay a loan. When a government is strong and stable and its currency is secured by gold, it can usually borrow money at reduced interest rates; when a government's economic condition is not too sound, it must pay a higher interest rate. Such a rate as four per cent would be too high for the government of the United States to pay. If a government, in addition to a high interest rate, has to pay a discount or provide a premium, its credit may be said to be bad.

Government bonds, therefore, are a better barometer than stocks as to the state of the nation. Stocks are hardly a barometer at all. The experiences with inflations and with depressions indicate that very false conclusions can be drawn from the state of the stock market as many people buy stocks because they believe that they are a hedge against inflation; also, if a war is in sight or an enormous budget is prepared for defense purposes, some financiers believe that whereas inflation may become spiral like a tornado, their equities may remain stable if they have invested in war industries.

They fail to recognize two factors that the political economist can foresee; one, that in the event that war should come or the economy should go out of hand, political controls would have to be established which would make their plans go awry; secondly, that if the money of a nation is no good, it does not matter how much of it one has.

This, then, is the most serious problem of the day and the one that most closely affects the politics of the next two years.

President Eisenhower has an unusual opportunity. He cannot constitutionally run for re-election. He is bound to nobody. He has fought for his party and has lost and is now under no obligations to fight further as a partisan. He can view public questions from the broadest standpoint of his particular supporters or partisans. He need not worry about any special groups who may have helped him emerge to the Presidency. He can design his program alone, one man against a tide of private interests. If, to save America, controls have to be put on money and its movement, I believe that the President holds residual powers sufficient to do as he sees fit.

In a word, as a lame duck President, Eisenhower can become truly great if he labors against the inflation and puts it down. If that requires a return to the gold standard, then he can find a way to do just that even if it means temporarily a ceiling on wages, prices, taxes, profits, interest and everything else until a proper adjustment has been made.

President Eisenhower now definitely has the widest freedom of action, and in the year, 1958, he need consult no one in his own party and only Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson among the Democrats.

He can go ahead and save the American economy as he went ahead and crossed the English Channel to invade France. One day the American people, who now find the inflation as salubrious as a Milton, will discover the inflation and the damage it can do. The terminal consequences of an inflation can be devastating.

Worry, Bad Diet,
Laxatives Can Initiate Spastic Colon

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The human body is not only one of the finest mechanisms known, but it is also remarkably resistant to abuse.

One part of the body which takes a lot of punishment is the digestive tract. It is therefore not surprising that irritation of the lower intestinal tract, or bowel is frequent.

The condition to which I refer is known as spastic colon, or irritable bowel. I receive a great many requests about this, asking what can be done to treat it and whether it increases the chances of developing cancer.

Chronic irritation of this portion of our anatomy is almost certainly one of the most common ailments today. Its most common signs are abdominal distress, growling or gurgling sounds in the area and disturbances in wasted elimination, particularly alternating diarrhea and constipation.

Apparently many factors enter into the development of spastic colon. Some are irregular eating habits, the consumption of irritating foods, the too frequent use of laxatives or cathartics, and by no means unimportant, emotional stress and strain.

Many people labor under the delusion that in order to keep themselves healthy they should "cleanse" their insides regularly with a laxative of one sort or another.

Actually, nature is well equipped to do this job, and does it a lot better most of the time than can be done artificially. Certainly the long continued use of cathartics is generally recognized in medical circles as one of the most important causes of bowel irritation or spastic colon.

A lot of people eat irregularly too and choose foods which do not give enough bulk or which are themselves too laxative in nature. This can also contribute to the development of spastic colon.

The pressure of modern life, particularly on a "highly strung" temperament, has a lot to do with bowel trouble. Anyone who has a spastic colon learns that the condition gets worse under nervous tension and this often brings on an acute attack.

Too many victims of spastic colon think they are constipated because they may go for a day or two without emptying the bowels. Often this is better because they had a little diarrhea and there is simply nothing left to eliminate. This causes concern, a laxative is taken, and the suffering colon is irritated again.

On the encouraging side, it can be said that spastic colon does not cause cancer nor will it of itself lead to anything else that threatens life. It responds reasonably well to treatment with a bland diet and sometimes medicines, but it is hard to get rid of entirely.

Most of those who have this trouble have experienced periods of great relief suddenly followed by a recurrence after a single unwisely chosen meal or an emotional upset.

things than the new design of the flag which, despite the rude international winds that have been tearing at it lately, remains for millions throughout the world the great symbol of freedom and individual human rights.

It Comes Out Hash Every Time

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Everybody and his brother now seem to be crowding into the act with some new plan for stimulating American investments in the less developed foreign countries.

The Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Committee for Economic Development, National Planning Association and the semi-official Business Advisory Council have through established lending institutions.

Last year U. S. private investments overseas totaled four billion dollars. But 3.3 billion of this was for oil exploration. Only 700 million went for non-oil enterprises.

Private businessmen, who aren't dumb, are just naturally reluctant to invest money in shaky foreign countries unless they can see sure profits ahead.

This is true even though the government's Investment Guarantee Program will write insurance on convertability of profits into dollars and against confiscation of property by nationalization or seizure by socialistic administrations.

BUT WHERE THERE is so much smoke going up, there must be some fire of enthusiasm. With so many different planning groups and individuals thinking along the same line, some concrete results should emerge from the next Congress.

Plans put forward so far fall into three main classifications: Expand the lending authority of existing international banking institutions.

Create new institutions to fill the gaps in credit lines now available. Make a new approach through regional development banks to meet the needs of specific areas like Latin America, Africa, the Middle East.

The consensus seems to be that only by a combination of these methods can the Russians be beaten off in their attempts to conquer the free world by economic warfare.

Among existing institutions, the World Bank and International Monetary Fund have already voted to increase their capitalization, by amounts still to be determined.

The U. S. Export-Import Bank received a two-billion-dollar increase in lending authority from the last Congress and is now expanding its operations.

U. S. DEVELOPMENT LOAN

FUND, created by Congress in 1957, is now completing obligation of its first 400 million dollars and will ask for more money in January.

The United Nations has just approved an expanded Special Projects Fund. It will increase its technical assistance programs from 30 to 100 million dollars a year, with the plan failed because the President himself, owing to his long service as a Federal judge, just wasn't accustomed to dealing in impromptu fashion with the spot news of the day.

Certified Correspondents

When President Wilson was first inaugurated, he held press conferences for all writers who were certified by the newly formed White House Correspondents Association. These press conferences didn't permit direct quotation and were abandoned shortly after World War I began. This was because Mr. Wilson objected to the presence of correspondents writing for newspapers in Germany, who, he felt, merely acted as information gatherers for the Germany Embassy.

Rather than make a public issue of it, he stopped holding press conferences himself. They were carried on daily, however, by the President's secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty. He gave

Air Force Is Silent On Atlas

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A mighty Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile thundered into space Monday night but the Air Force was silent today on the fate of the giant war rocket.

If the 100-ton missile hit its target, the United States took another great step forward in its campaign to develop a carrier that can drop a nuclear warhead on any target on earth.

There was official silence, however, after the Atlas blasted off at 11 p. m.

The three engines of the Atlas built up more than 350,000 pounds of thrust before the missile was released. The brilliance of its exhaust flames almost blinded newsmen watching from a platform three miles from the launching pad.

The thunder of the rocket's engines shook this area as the Atlas climbed straight upward for about a minute, then curved gracefully away to the southeast.

Four minutes later, it resembled a great star hanging in the sky. Thirty seconds later it vanished from view as its fuel burned out.

Reportedly, this Atlas was aimed for a target 3,000 miles down the Atlantic Ocean tracking range.

Shortly afterward, her husband was found slumped over the wheel of his car not far away.

Police said he admitted bludgeoning his wife to death and then swallowing two bottles of sedatives in a suicide attempt.

Autopsy Reveals Merrihew Baby Died of Pneumonia

An autopsy performed yesterday showed that Walter Edwin Merrihew, seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Merrihew, of 74 Abeel Street, died of bronchial pneumonia. Coroner Francis J. McCord reported today.

The infant was pronounced dead on arrival at Kingston Hospital yesterday morning. It was first thought that the child had suffocated in his crib. Artificial respiration was applied by Deputy Chief Harold A. Sanford, Captain Edward H. Albrecht and Fireman Frederick A. Hursman.

Mrs. Merrihew first noticed the child's condition between 9:30 and 10 a. m., when she had found him face downward in the crib. Pneumonia, it was noted, is not always easily detectable in infants.

Arthur B. Hogle

Former Resident

Deaths at Syracuse

Word has been received here of the death of Arthur B. Hogle, 67, one time resident of Kingston and well-known musician, on Thursday, Nov. 13, at University Hospital, Syracuse.

A native Syracusean, Mr. Hogle was at Spring Lake for a year following World War II. His sister, Mrs. Felix Nettleton, resided at 51 West O'Reilly Street.

At the time of his death Mr. Hogle was harbormaster at Onondaga Lake Marina, a post he had held since April 1954. He had been acting harbormaster for year prior to his appointment. Earlier he had been in the publishing and bookbinding business in Syracuse and Binghamton.

Music however was his prime concern. Mr. Hogle organized a four-piece group known as the "Red Jackets" which played dates in major United States hotels from 1940 to 1946.

During World War II, with his accordionist son, Duane A. Hogle and two other band members, he went overseas with the USO playing bases in Iceland, Greenland, Baffin Islands, Europe and Australia. Among his notable engagements were playing for Ginger Rogers in a Tucson, Ariz., hotel and for Gene Autry in Amarillo, Tex.

One of his earliest dates was at the opening of the George F. Johnson Pavilion in Johnson City. He remained there from 1945 to 1946.

Funeral services were conducted 9:30 a. m. Monday at the Mauer Funeral Home, Liverpool, and at 10 a. m. at St. Matthew's Church, Liverpool, with the Rev. John D. Hughes, officiating.

Ordered Two to Follow

Lizzette ordered Brown and Thompson to accompany him off the ship and as they were reasoning with him, Hicks and Jackie Ryan, Winchester, Va., returning from liberty, boarded the ship.

Lizzette forced Hicks, Ryan and Thompson to walk from the ship to Hicks' parked car. Thompson bolted from the group and alerted a civilian guard.

When Lizzette demanded that Hicks drive down a one-way street, Hicks balked and Lizzette fired a single shot into his jaw.

Hicks was pushed from the car by Lizzette and Ryan was commanded to drive.

As Ryan and Lizzette neared the Chelsea Naval Hospital, Lizzette told Ryan to stop the car and get out. Lizzette then sped off.

Bias Is Reported
Against Negroes
In Music Jobs

NEW YORK (AP)—An iron curtain of discrimination bars most Negroes from jobs in orchestral music in New York, says the Urban League.

Mrs. Sophia Y. Jacobs, league president, told a news conference Monday "the general opinion of the community is that the Negro musician experiences little or no discrimination. This unfortunately is not true."

She said Negroes are discriminated against "in every branch of the music industry—orchestra composers, arrangers, contractors, managers and so forth."

The Urban League, whose membership includes Negroes and whites, seek to promote equality of opportunity in jobs and housing and to improve racial relationships generally.

The league's industrial relations secretary, Douglas G. Pugh, said employment of Negroes among major orchestras here was nil.

Mosel, conceding the fact of censorship, emphasized on ratings and on big name stars, also suggested that the audience grew mighty tired of particular type of TV play that "started imitating itself and you could turn from show to show, from night to night, and you'd see the same kind of thing."

In other words, said Mosel, "a lot of television drama got to be just plain bad. I didn't get tired of it; I just couldn't stand it."

In my opinion, the seven mentioned only casually one of the chief causes of their sense of alienation from television. This season with fewer live drama shows on the air than at any time in years, television dramatists could not support themselves in the style to which they've become accustomed if they worked only for the medium.

While respecting and agreeing with nearly everything they said, I can't forget a characteristic of nearly every writer I've known: He loves to talk idealistically, but he's as interested in dollars as any man.

NEW YORK (AP)—Starting this month, dairy farmers near New York City will be paid more for their milk.

Dr. C. J. Blanford, federal milk market administrator, said Monday New York-New Jersey dairymen within a 50-mile radius of the city will get an eight-cent per hundredweight increase for milk sold under a new scale of differential payments for fluid milk.

The 3,000 farmers affected will receive a differential of 48 cents per hundredweight instead of 4 cents, until further notice.

Other farmers more distant from the city will also get increased differential payments, but in lower amounts.

Blanford said producers near the metropolitan New York area

Beginning, End Seen Worst for Space Travelers

NEW YORK (AP) — Space pilots may whip off to Mars or the moon in their shirtsleeves, scientists said today.

The big luxuries of the trip may be only a shave and a change of underclothes from time to time.

This was the rugged future of man in space suggested by a panel of space doctors and engineers at the 13th annual meeting of the American Rocket Society.

Whatever the space pilot is allowed to wear, his worst moments may come at the beginning and end of his trip.

Ordeal Both Times

It is then he must withstand the enormous stresses of blast off acceleration and the braking of return into the earth's atmosphere.

He is scarcely likely to enjoy either ordeal, said Col. John P. Stapp, U.S. Air Force researcher who has tested these stresses on the human body in rocket sled work.

A new space capsule, being built at the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, was described by Capt. Willard R. Hawkins and Dr. George T. Hauth.

It will serve as a training capsule for future space fliers and as a research chamber, they said. It will incorporate many items learned in earlier space flight experiments.

Food Morale Booster

Food may be one of the biggest morale items of the space flier.

In simulated space trips, volunteers said baby food and other unattractive items did their jobs poorly. They were demoralized. Some even became nauseated.

In fact, a high caloric diet with exotic foods, plenty of fruit juices and water, was the biggest morale factor in the first seven-day pretended space flight, the scientists said.

Some of the experimental items served to the space fliers were lobster, Norwegian shrimp, quail eggs and boned turkey.

Drinking water should be cool and fresh-tasting — another big morale item to men who lived for a week on stale brackish water.

Time is one of the biggest tests in space — and boredom is another.

The jobs of the space flight pretender, once mastered, become monotonous. Time hangs around the space flier. He develops fears and depressions and he gets more irritable as his flight wears on.

Fortune Teller Correct

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Gypsy fortune teller peered intently into her crystal ball Monday and told the man he would be successful in his job.

He was.

The client was a plainclothes policeman, who promptly arrested her for predicting the future.

Mrs. Mildred Vlado, 28, was given a $100 fine by Magistrate Vernon H. Wiesand, suspended if she would put $50 into the poor box.

Boy Dies of Injuries

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Robert F. Marlin, 8, of the Orleans County village of Waterport died today in a hospital here of injuries suffered when struck by a auto Nov. 16.

Police said he was riding a bicycle near his home at the time of the accident. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Marlin.

Warned at 98

BOSTON (AP) — John Peters, 98, was freed Monday from an assault and battery charge with a judge's warning that he behave himself.

Peters had pleaded innocent to the charge which grew out of a tiff in a park with a woman neighbor, 78.

Nixon Confident

four served notice Monday they will battle any compromise that would fall short of an effective rule change.

Nixon is reported opposed to any provision by which a majority could put a gag on debate. He is said to feel this should be done only with the approval of two-thirds of those voting.

With the Senate likely to be about equally divided on that issue, the betting is that Johnson will come up with a compromise fairly early in the new session.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed away quietly early this afternoon from the latest push to record highs.

Leading issues fell fractions to about two points. Scattered stocks bucked the trend with gains running to about a point.

Brokers said the decline looked like one more consolidation period in the market's seven-month climb to a succession of new peaks. The average has posted historic highs in five of the past six sessions.

The general run of business news was regarded as a bit less optimistic than recently.

Some losses were trimmed as the session continued. Goodyear trimmed about a point from a three-point setback. U. S. Steel reduced a one-point loss to a fraction. United Fruit paid an early three-point loss a bit.

Eastman Kodak, after rebounding about two, weakened and showed a net loss of over a point.

General Instrument, was down well over a point.

National Distillers raced ahead about two points.

Kennecott and Pfizer were off a point or more.

U. S. government bonds were steady.

Clothing Drive Ends Friday at Local Schools

Children in many parts of the world—including underprivileged areas of the United States—await the response to nationwide Save the Children Federation Bundle Days Clothing Collection ending this week in Kingston city schools.

This year the need for clothing in the Southern Mountains of the United States is especially acute, because of floods and unemployment.

Donated clothing will be sent to school this week by students or brought to school directly in bags or cartons.

"Students are very enthusiastic about the Clothing Collection and parents and friends are urged to cooperate with them in bringing their total collection to a high point," said Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent.

Blankets and sheets, in addition to good-used winter and summer garments for children, babies and adults are urgently requested. Low-heeled shoes and overshoes are especially needed. Each year thousands of children are enabled to attend school in the Southern Mountains by the distribution of clothing through SCF Clothing Centers where clothing is made available at very low prices to poor but proud people who prefer not to accept free clothing. However, to those who cannot afford to pay, clothing is also made available without charge through county welfare and attendance officers.

In addition to its use in the Southern Mountains, clothing is stockpiled for free distribution to victims of disasters at home and overseas. In years past, SCF has rushed clothing to stricken areas in the United States, Algeria, Austria, Finland, Germany, France, Haiti, Israel, Italy, Korea and Mexico.

The donated clothing program is a part of Save the Children Federation's overall work which also includes the sponsoring of schools in the United States and in 13 countries overseas, and the initiating of village self-projects for children in the United States and abroad.

Cornell Proposes State Museum Be Moved to Ithaca

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Cornell University wants the State Museum moved from Albany to the Cornell campus at Ithaca.

The museum now occupies the top floor of the massive Education Building adjacent to the State Capitol.

A spokesman for the Education Department confirmed Monday night that Cornell had proposed the shift of the museum.

The school said that a combination of its museum facilities with those of the state would benefit students and research scientists.

The university also noted that its campus is more geographically centered in the state than Albany. A State Museum at Ithaca would be more accessible to more residents than one at Albany, Cornell said.

The Cornell request was made to Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr., who has made no comment on the proposal.

Lung Cancer Is Also Linked to Engine Exhausts

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio doctor said today air pollution caused by auto and truck exhausts is as much responsible as cigarettes for increasing lung cancer.

Dr. Chauncey D. Leake, assistant dean of the college of medicine at Ohio State University, made the statement in a speech prepared for the opening of the National Conference on Air Pollution.

Calls for Action

Foul air originally was caused largely by burning of coal in homes and industry, Leake said, but now scientific studies show half of air pollution comes from motor engine exhaust.

"In addition to eye and respiratory irritation, the increasing incidence of lung cancer is quite as referable to increased city traffic exhausts as to cigarettes," he said.

"When are the auto and truck manufacturers going to turn from the foolishness of fins, from silly style whims, from over-sized models and from too much horsepower, to the essential but tough job of controlling exhausts."

In another prepared talk, Dr. Herman Hilleboe, New York State health commissioner, also pointed to motor vehicles as a main source of air pollution.

He said there were 66,400,000 of them on the nation's highways last year as compared with 40,600,000 in 1948.

70 Specialists on Hand

The conference was called by U. S. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney. More than 70 air pollution specialists, civic leaders and representatives of industrial and governmental agencies dealing with air pollution are participating in the three days of sessions.

The Public Health Service hopes the participants will agree on a 10-year plan to fight air pollution.

In addition to mentioning auto exhaust, Dr. Leake said nuclear weapons testing also is a "potentially very dangerous sort of air pollution, involving all living things."

"One need only spend a few hours in California or Nevada to recognize the growing public apprehension over radiation fallout," he said, adding that confusion over security matters has weakened popular confidence in the Atomic Energy Commission's judgment on the tests.

Sees Irreparable Damage

This might even result in gradual melting of the huge polar ice caps and flooding of some coastal cities, he suggested.

Dr. Hilleboe said states and cities now have the know-how to do a good job on air pollution control. But most of them can get only token financial support, he said.

He urged that the Public Health Service break the deadlock by a crash recruitment and training program in air pollution control.

"If this is not done, and soon, irreparable damage will result," he said.

Father of Local Man Honored at Testimonial Fete

Joseph Augustine, Jericho Road, Rivena, RD 1, was honored at a testimonial dinner Saturday at the Center Inn, Bethlehem Center, on his retirement from the New York Central railroad and as an officer of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees Lodge 1354, Selkirk.

Augustine is the father of Roland A. Augustine, Kingston insurance man, and Frank P. Augustine, state editor of the Watertown Daily Times, Watertown, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Augustine were among the guests attending the testimonial dinner. The elder Augustine is well known to many Kingston residents.

Augustine's retirement marked the end of 47 years of service with the track department of the New York Central. He went to work for the Central on the company's Pennsylvania division in Clearfield, Pa., in 1911, and was transferred to the Selkirk yards as foreman in 1925. In 1925 he was instrumental in organizing Lodge 1354 of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and served as its secretary-treasurer 33 years. During that time he also was a member of the New York Central system protective board, a post he will retain.

Tribute to Augustine was paid by Ralph Freccia, Brooklyn, retired general chairman of the brotherhood, who cited the honored guest's inspiration and duty to the lodge; Sal R. Freccia, Brooklyn, now the brotherhood's general chairman, and Charles K. Lorraine, New Hartford, brotherhood vice general chairman.

The lodge and the system presented gifts to Augustine.

2-Session Auditorium Drill

CD Vols to Set Up Disaster Hospital Wednesday Night

A portable 200-bed disaster hospital will be set up Wednesday night at the Municipal Auditorium on Broadway by 76 Civil Defense Emergency Medical Services volunteers, Major H. Edgar Timmerman, Ulster County Civil Defense Director, has announced.

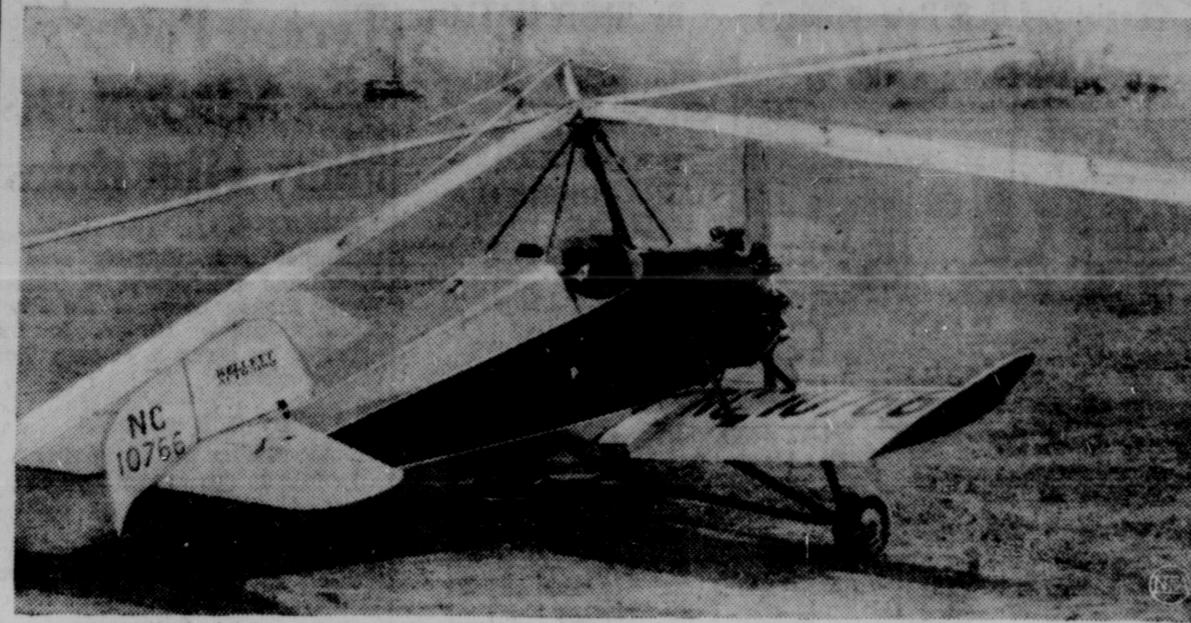

Eight hospital sections will be set up in detail and prepared to accept simulated disaster casualties which will be treated at the hospital the following night. Both evening sessions are a part of a program to train community teams of physicians, nurses, other hospital personnel and Medical Aides to turn an available building into a surgical Improvised Emergency Hospital within a few hours after an enemy attack or major natural disaster.

In Strategic Location

Two hundred Mobile Hospital Outfits are being stockpiled by Civil Defense authorities in strategic locations throughout the state where they will be available in the event of a disaster. Two such outfits are touring the state by trailer truck and are used in the training of the community Civil Defense teams. Fifty-four such teams were trained between September 1957 and May 1958. An equal number will be trained during 1958-59. The 76 persons on each team will form the core of a staff of 220 who are needed to man a 200-bed hospital and keep it in operation around the clock.

According to Dr. Cooke of Kingston will be the medical director of the team, Miss Esther Schisa of the Ulster County Health Dept. will be the director of nurses, and Robert L. Harkins of Kingston Hospital will be the executive officer. Mrs. Merrill Yapple, deputy nurse officer of the Ulster-Kingston Civil Defense Council, who has been head of the Medical Aides Training program in Ulster County since 1955, will be the director of medical aides in this exercise.

The training program is sponsored by the New York State Health Department's Office of Medical Defense, and the Ulster County Office of Civil Defense. To accomplish the training, the State Office of Medical Defense is loaning the local Civil Defense organization the basic part of a Mobile Hospital Outfit. The complete outfit consists of the supplies necessary to equip a 200-

COMEBACK FOR THE AUTOIRO—The autogiro, a novel aircraft of the 30's combining the virtues of the airplane and the helicopter, is being put back into production because its designer believes it was ahead of its time. The Kellett Aircraft Corporation of Willow Grove, Pa., says the new autogiro will debut this winter with deliveries expected next spring. The machine can fly as slow as 20 m.p.h. and cruise up to 120 m.p.h. Kellett's original autogiro is shown above in 1931.

2 Awaiting Jury Action on Dozen Denning Thefts

Two 20-year old Massachusetts men, each with four felony convictions, were turned over to state authorities Monday on charges of burglary, third degree, involving approximately 12 burglaries in April 1957 in the Town of Denning.

One of these jobs was at the former Forstmann estate now owned by the New Jersey Council of YMCA's.

The men—Ralph Saviano and Robert Sapanaro both of Natick, Mass.—were turned over to Kingston State Police on a warrant obtained by Cpl. Edward Shannon, BCI. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Millard Davis and committed to Ulster County Jail to await action of the Ulster County Grand Jury.

A third man, James Bonnette of Louisiana, described as a "jockey by profession," is being sought.

Shannon said most of the articles stolen in the town of Denning burglaries were recovered from the home of the three men who were renting at Saranac Lake.

Police said Charles Melquist, 23, described as "big brother" of Bonnie Leigh Scott, admitted he smothered the high school sophomore with a pillow in his auto in suburban Villa Park the night of Sept. 22 after he resisted his advances.

He then disrobed her and drove to a forest preserve where he disposed of her body in a ditch.

The girl's nude, decapitated body was found Saturday by a group of Boy Scouts who Melquist said he had dumped it.

Melquist was quoted by police as saying he returned to the body four days after the slaying.

"I thought I killed her in a dream," he said, "and I went to see if the body was there."

On the night of Oct. 30, police said Melquist related during five hours of questioning, he went back and severed the head from the body with a four-inch knife.

He said that since the slaying he has been having "terrible dreams."

Bonnie Leigh was reported missing after she failed to return home the night of Sept. 22. She lived with her grandmother and an aunt and uncle in suburban Addison, a few miles from Melquist's home. Her parents are separated.

Officers Sheldon O'Rourke and Robert Bonestell were sent to the scene after the accident was reported. TenEyck is due to appear before City Judge Aaron E. Klein Wednesday morning.

Paul Davis, 20, of Port Ewen, who was arrested Oct. 29 on a charge of speeding, was fined $100 after a city court trial today. His license was revoked and he was placed on probation. He had previously been arrested on a like charge.

Attorney Nathan appeared for the defendant and John E. Gottelli for the district attorney's office.

Industrialist Is

lawyer and former Orange County district attorney, announced that he had been retained by White as defense counsel.

Hirschberg said he would seek to speed up the schedule Dec. 1 hearing against White. No immediate reaction was expressed by Dist. Atty. Abraham Isseks.

White said he shot Dugan with a pistol after an argument when Dugan rushed toward him with his hand in his pocket as though holding a gun. There was no gun.

Prosecution Resumes Fugate Questioning

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Prosecutors planned today to resume attempts to shake Carl Ann Fugate's story she was forced by fear and threats into her role as companion to Charles Starkweather, condemned slayer, on a killing rampage last January.

The cross-examination of the young murder defendant began Monday night. The girl's defense during a three-week trial has been based largely on her own testimony.

Carl, 15, is charged with aiding and abetting Starkweather in one of 11 killings blamed on him.

She maintains she didn't know her ex-boyfriend already had killed three members of her own family when she and the youth set out last Jan. 27 on a bloody three-day flight that ended with their capture in Wyoming.

Admits Gruesome Slaying of Girl

CHICAGO (AP)—A gangling jobless masonry worker was held by police today after they said he admitted the gruesome slaying of his former 15-year-old girl friend.

Shannon said most of the articles stolen in the town of Denning burglaries were recovered from the home of the three men who were renting at Saranac Lake.

Police said Charles Melquist, 23, described as "big brother" of Bonnie Leigh Scott, admitted he smothered the high school sophomore with a pillow in his auto in suburban Villa Park the night of Sept. 22 after he resisted his advances.

Twister Takes Mail, Too

MOUDVILLE, Mo. (AP)—When a twister struck Moundville Monday, Postmaster Leasel M. Janes was home for lunch.

The wind let up after 15 minutes and Janes rushed to the post office.

Every letter, paper, periodical was swept away, including his $250 stock of stamps and about $30 in currency. Four windows of the building were blown out and all others were shattered.

Townspersons brought in about 75 letters they found along the twister's path. Janes recovered about $40 worth of stamps and two crumpled $1 bills.

May Be Last Trip

LE HAVRE, France (AP)—The Ile de France, a one-time queen of the North Atlantic, docked here Monday night after what may have been her final voyage.

No one knows what is going to happen to the 32-year-old liner.

Officials of the French Line say it is too costly to keep her running, and she is too slow to keep up with the competition. No decision will be taken for a month.

Hints at Blockade

So far the Russians and their East German satellite leaders had talked without acting. But the talk startled the West into re-examining its policies when Khrushchev hinted at a possible new Berlin blockade.

Khrushchev indicated he might hand over to the East Germans control over Allied access to their garrisons in West Berlin, across 110 miles of East Germany. This would force the Allies either to deal with the East Germans or to give up overland supply routes and resort to an airlift.

Speaks of Restrictions

Reports from Washington and London speak of possible restricted contacts with the East Germans if they take over control of the Allied supply line.

Limited contacts might not imply diplomatic recognition. But the talk alone has been enough to yank East German leaders out of the dusty shadows. Since the Russians set up their regime nine years ago, the East Germans have been among the most despised and ignored satellite leaders in Eastern Europe.

Ike Asks Details

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) says President Eisenhower has asked for a detailed memorandum on Gore's proposal for a three-year U. S. nuclear weapons tests.

Gore told newsmen the President made this request during a White House meeting Monday at which the Tennessee senator advanced his idea.

The senator, a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, has just returned from serving in Geneva as a delegate at the deadlocked east-west talks on test suspension.

Escapee Is Caught

WATKINS GLEN, N. Y. (AP)—Melvin A. McAndrews, 39, who pulled a jail break with four other prisoners, was captured this morning by state police.

Troopers found McAndrews, whom they listed as dangerous, hiding in a shack near Cayuta. He was taken without violence.

Son, 26, Admits Fatal Stabbing Of Mother, 46

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — I stabbed mother."

Robert Egbert said it simply Monday night. He was facing his brother Steven in the living room.

Behind him was a sofa and under it, the nude body of his mother, Marie Egbert, 46.

Walking Dazedly

Mrs. Egbert had been stabbed and strangled. Police charged 26-year-old Robert with homicide.

Steven, 24, told police he returned to their apartment about 7 p.m., and found Robert walking dazedly about. He could see his mother's bare legs protruding from under the sofa.

"What have you done?" Steven demanded of his brother.

"I stabbed mother," was Robert's reply. Steven said.

Monday morning Robert and his mother reported to a probation officer. He had been charged with impairing the morals of a minor.

Last Friday, Robert was arrested on a disorderly conduct charge for allegedly creating a disturbance at the Bischoff Tool Co. The day before, he had been laid off a job there.

Had Acted Strangely

Steven told police his brother had been acting strangely since his layoff at the plant.

"He wouldn't eat the food mother cooked. He even bought his own bar of soap and kept in the bathroom away from the soap we used," Steven said.

Policemen said after Robert and his mother left the probation office, they went to a market, purchased some meat—then left it on the counter and walked from the store. Robert took a walk during the afternoon.

An insurance agent called at the apartment about an hour before Steven came home. Robert paid him, then ushered him past the living room where his mother's body was later found.

Policemen said that Robert strangled his mother while she was ironing and then stabbed her with a pair of scissors because he thought she might still be alive.

Charges West

He promised to hand over Soviet occupation powers in East Berlin to the East Germans.

Pravda said today the Soviet government "is unshakable in its decision" to change the occupation status of Berlin. Western approval is not needed for the Kremlin to carry out its decisions, the Communist party newspaper added. Moscow radio broadcast the article.

Hints at Blockade

So far the Russians and their East German satellite leaders had talked without acting. But the talk startled the West into re-examining its policies when Khrushchev hinted at a possible new Berlin blockade.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME (Registered U. S. Patent Office)

By JIMMY HATLO

IN EVERY GROUP WHERE SOMEBODY IS TELLING A JOKE THERE'S ONE GUY WHO SEEMS TO BE THINKING OF SOMETHING ELSE...

Tyrone Power's

Life Matched His
Many Film Roles

Editor's Note: AP Hollywood columnist Bob Thomas was a friend and interviewer of Tyrone Power during much of the star's fabulous movie career. In two articles, he gives a closeup view of Power's life.

By BOB THOMAS

AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tyrone Power created dozens of memorable screen roles, but none was more romantic and adventurous than his own life.

How many of them come to mind. . . . The eager songwriter of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," the swashbuckler of "Mark of Zorro," the bullfighter in "Blood and Sand" . . . "Jesse James" . . . the soul-seeker of "The Razor's Edge" . . . the conquerador of "Captain From Castile" . . .

He was Johnny Apollo, a Yank in the R.A.F., Prince of Foxes, an American guerrilla in the Philippines, diplomatic courier, Mississippi gambler, king of the Khyber Rifles and Eddy Duchin. Each time he was believable. He never won an Academy award, but to a whole generation he was the perfect picture of an adventurous hero.

It Was No Pose

His own life bore that out. This was no pose. He had scant regard for publicity, did little more than tolerate it. He merely led the kind of life he liked. It took him all over the world in search of new experiences and challenges.

He seemed destined for a restless life. His father was a stage star in the era when an actor's life meant constant travel. As a young actor, Tyrone played at the Chicago World's Fair and toured with Katharine Cornell's troupe.

Only in the formative stage of his Hollywood career did he stay put. That was when Darryl Zanuck was putting him in one big picture after another, spreading his fame to all parts of the world. The war gave him an escape. His service overseas as a Marine pilot rekindled the wanderlust.

Seemed Uneasy

When he returned to films he seemed uneasy tied down in Hollywood. As soon as he finished a picture he would hop in a company plane with two or three aides and pilot them on a goodwill tour of South America, Africa or some other far-off land.

He explained: "In my travels, I've seen too many old people sitting around on the decks of boats trying to enjoy trips they waited so long to take."

After 16 years at 20th Century-Fox he was chafing under his contract. He took a suspension for refusing "Lydia Bailey." He said he had done five costume pictures in a row and wanted a film in which "people talk normally, not in stilted dialogue."

Thrills Were Gone

He added: "There's no thrill left in the movie business. There's no more glory, and you can't add to your bank account; it all goes to taxes. So I figure it's better to do something I like to do."

He realized that younger stars were pressing his position. He said realistically: "When you're through in this business, you've got to have established that you can do something else."

Tyrone never had to worry about being through. He was a top star to the end. It was perhaps fitting that the end came while he was filming a lavish spectacle in a distant land.

(Tomorrow: The loves of Tyrone Power.)

ANNOUNCING THE FIRST LUXURY
CARS WITH A CONSCIENCE:
NEW GAS-SAVING MONTEREYSNew economy-powered Mercury Montereys let you
"ride free" 10 miles in every 100

It's about time someone made a luxury car with a V-8 engine that delivers top performance on regular (not premium) gasoline.

And Mercury's done it with this beautiful Monterey. You save 10% every time you stop for gas. You get more mileage with regular gasoline than many cars with premium.

It's about time someone built a beautifully styled car that is truly comfortable. Mercury's done it.

• For easier entrance, this Monterey has wider front doors than the costliest cars. The windshield pillar has been moved out of the way of your knees and elbows.

• For extra knee room, the instrument panel has been moved away from your lap. There's 9 inches more stretch-out comfort.

• For extra comfort for center-seat passengers, the tunnel-hump in the floor has been cut in half. Passengers in the middle no longer ride with their legs doubled up. And the lower hump makes room for thicker seat cushioning—not just thin padding.

In a dozen ways, the '59 Mercury has made pleasures out of what are still problems in other '59 cars: New windshield wipers have an overlapping pattern, clear even the center. New aluminized mufflers last twice as long. New anti-dive suspension checks "nose dip" on sudden stops. Self-adjusting brakes eliminate periodic adjustment. New Super-Enamel finish keeps its beauty—doesn't need waxing for years.

Best of all, these beautiful Montereys are attractively priced—well within the reach of 2 out of 3 new-car buyers. We invite you to see them at our showroom.

Party Unity Sure to Suffer

Deliberate Rights Delay
Poor Democratic Strategy

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The

elections were two weeks ago.

Now — 14 days and many thousands of words later — what is the picture on why the Republicans lost and what the new Congress will do?

Two things are certain: (1) the Republicans took a terrible drubbing, and (2) this happened because the voters had more confidence in the Democrats.

But the arguments on why this was so are still going on.

Apologists for the Republicans are still straining to minimize the significance of their defeat. Criti-cics blame their loss on everything from poor leadership by President

Eisenhower to reactionary Republican policy.

One conclusion seems reasonable: that the Republicans had better get wise to themselves and get more in step with whatever it is the voters want, if they hope to do any better in 1960.

But the real post-election discussion covers speculation on what the new Congress will do.

This much seems certain when Congress comes back in January:

A group of liberal senators,

both Democrats and Republicans from the North and West, will try to curb the filibustering power of Southern Democrats who have

Callouses
Pain, Burning, Tenderness
on Bottom of Feet
SUPER-FAST RELIEF!
Dr. Scholl's Zino-padsused unlimited debate to block most civil rights legislation.

May Change Rule

The rule on filibusters may possibly be changed to make it easier to smash them. But that's an end is a guarantee that any major civil rights bill would get through Congress in 1959.Both parties may think it politically smarter to push civil rights harder in 1960, since that's an election year and minority groups would have a more recent and vivid memory of any progress made.Such a deliberate delay could turn out to be poor strategy for the Democratic leadership at least and for this reason:A blazing quarrel between Northern and Southern Democrats in 1960 over civil rights might damage party unity when they get to that year's nominating convention. Without party unity in the campaign, the door would be open to a Republican victory.

Biggest Guesses

But the biggest guessing of all — and it probably will continue until well after the January opening of the new Congress — covers questions like these:1. Since a number of the most conservative Republicans in the Senate lost out in the election, will the more liberal wing of the party be able to assert itself and give Republicanism a meaning more to the voters' liking?2. Will the newly elected Democratic senators — most of them classified as liberals — be able to join forces with the present group classified as liberals in such a way as to shape the kind of Democratic programs they want?3. Will Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, have as much control over the at least 62 Democrats in the next Senate as he did over the old one where the Democrats numbered only 49?The best and most honest answer anyone can give to all three questions is simply: wait and see.

Returned to Florida
For Murder Trial

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Frank Peterson, a 27-year-old Negro, has been returned to Florida to stand trial on charges he killed a white farmer and his baby daughter.

Peterson fought extradition to Florida on a claim he would not receive a fair trial there. Gov. Averell Harriman, however, ordered him returned at the request of Florida's Gov. Leroy Collins.Peterson, an ex-convict, was arrested last July at a migrant labor camp 25 miles south of Buffalo.

He was held in Erie County jail.

Florida police took him back to Florida Monday. The means of transportation were not disclosed.

Peterson is charged with slaying

Ira Gene Carnley, 27, of Bonifay, Fla., and his daughter, Ernestine, 2, last June with an ax.

Carnley's wife told police the assassin raped her.

CORBETT MONICA

To Entertain at Thanksgiving Eve Ball, Congregation Ahavath Israel Is Sponsor

Corbett Monica, whom columnist Earl Wilson called "versatile talent," will appear for the Thanksgiving Eve Ball sponsored by the Congregation Ahavath Israel on Wednesday, Nov. 20 at Municipal Auditorium.

As in the past, proceeds will be used in greater part for charitable benefits. The entertainments and fine music will be furnished by one of the most famous and outstanding orchestras in the country—Stan Kenton.

An Early Hit

Lee Mortimer predicted early in the year "Corbett Monica's due to hit the top soon." George Bourke of the Miami Herald seconded the motion with "Corbett will make some of the funnymen in the upper brackets hustle to keep on top." Billboard Magazine said "Corbett Monica's a young comic who is on the way up." Nick Kenny reported that "Corbett Monica's reputation as a top night club performer has made him a 'hot property' in the eyes of the major TV networks." Reviewing his smash engagement with Frankie Laine at the Beach Club in Wildwood, N. J., Variety's comment was "Fresh and funny Corbett Monica set a fast pace."

This kind of press can't go unnoticed and in Corbett's case it has mirrored his rapid rise as the most "in demand" new name in the field of comedy. Such top stars as Dinah Shore, Dorothy Lamour, Patti Page, Nat "King" Cole, Frankie Laine and Julius La Rosa have requested his comedy support.

Variety enthusiastically reviewed his momentous debut at the Chez Paree in Chicago with Billy Daniels in these words, "The young performer showed on opening night that he can hold the audience." High praise and well deserved!

WHEN A GUEST IS LEAVING

Dear Mrs. Post: When taking leave, does the hostess, or the guest, hold out her hand first to say good-bye? Do you think a guest could be offended if a hostess held out her hand first, or don't you think it matters?

Answer: It is not important, although I can see how it might matter to someone. For example, a visitor who had very sensitive feelings might get the impression, if her hostess held out her hand when she got up to leave, that she was being hurried off. As a matter of fact, if a hostess wanted very much to end a meeting this would be the only method she could use short of telling someone to go. Therefore, it might, after all, be better to advise a hostess to wait when a formal visitor is taking leave so as not to run the risk of hurting her feelings. To a friend this couldn't—at least it shouldn't—apply.

A Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Dear Mrs. Post: Where should my husband and I receive, and who should stand with us, at our silver wedding anniversary celebration? Only one of our attendants can be present. What part should our children take? (This is to be a reception.)

Answer: You and your husband stand together just inside of the door or the room in which you will receive. It is not expected, but it will be very suitable, to ask the attendant you speak of to receive with you. Your children make themselves agreeable by circulating among your guests and seeing that none of them appears to be in any way neglected.

A Raise in Salary
Dear Mrs. Post: When I received my pay check last week I noticed that I had received quite a substantial increase in salary. It was a very happy surprise to me. I would like to know if I should go in and thank my employer for this, or do I accept it as a matter of course?

Answer: You certainly should thank him for your raise.

On what occasion does a gentleman lift his hat or remove it? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-15, "Manners in Public," includes this and many questions about manners in public. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. West Coast Fashion Designers Responsible For Better Attire; Sport Shirts Vanishing

By DOROTHY ROE
PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Far West nowadays is neither wild nor woolly.

Cowboys are wearing dinner jackets and their girl friends are turned out in the best gowns Hattie Carnegie or Irene have to offer.

You can see gray flannel suits instead of sports shirts on Hollywood Boulevard, and the girls who used to do their shopping attired in flowered pajamas and curlers now are smartly turned out in correct little shirtwaist dresses and sometimes even hats.

From San Diego to Portland you see a new sophistication—a new awareness of the rest of the world. Maybe it's due to the new age of international travel. Maybe it's because of the fine fashion designers of the West Coast. Whatever the reason, the old Far West ain't what she used to be.

I can speak with authority, for I have been observing this great West Coast since the age of five, when my mining-engineer father was bitten by the gold bug, and set out to seek his fortune in the Rockies, the Sierra Nevadas, the plateaus of Arizona and the deserts of Nevada.

A hundred years is a mere interlude as European history is measured. Yet in one century the American path to the west has changed from covered wagon trains to luxury air liners.

I'm on my way now, aboard a DC7 from San Diego to Portland, to visit an 80-year-old aunt, who was the best school teacher in Webb City, Mo., until she married a Portland lawyer a half century ago.

Though she has been a widow for many years, she refuses to leave her Western home for the effete East.

To all family entreaties to come East, she replies:

"I just wouldn't feel right if I couldn't look up and see Mount Hood."

Now that I've had a fresh look at the West, I know what she means. You have to travel across this big land of ours once in a while to get a perspective on the meaning and the strength of America.

Jets Hop Atlantic

LONDON (AP) — A British Comet IV and an American Boeing 707 raced across the Atlantic Ocean today. Jet airline passenger competition was in full swing.

The Comet of British Overseas Airways Corp. was due in New York with 33 passengers at 2:35 p. m. EST. Pan American's 707 was scheduled to land 110 passengers in New York at 1:45 p. m.

The Comet left London Airport with a 35-minute lead. Planes were to refuel at Gander, Nfld.

BOAC started daily New York-London jet service last Friday. Pan American's inaugural was delayed 13½ hours Monday by fog which trapped it in Ireland.

Even Highballs Bad

PORT CREDIT, Ont. (AP) — The water in this village near Toronto is so bad it's making whisky undrinkable.

Mayor Stephen Bradley told the village council of the complaint from a whisky-and-water man.

Councillor Arthur Farrington, chairman of the water committee, said a high phenol content—which adds a flavor similar to creosote—had developed. Workers are flushing the mains to purify the highballs.

Moscow Goes Okie

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow radio served up a surprise today for Western listeners to its home broadcasts. The radio orchestra played the complete overture from "Oklahoma." Then two songs from the American musical, "I Can't Say 'No,'" "Everything's Up to Date in Kansas City," were sung in a Russian translation.

One of the many new games for Christmas-giving this year is one intended to step up learning. It involves a clock and calendar (upper left). It teaches the meaning of the day, hour, minute and second. Basic training for youngsters intrigued by electricity is this build-it set (upper right). This is another in a series of educational toys. Admiring owner displays Christmas doll (lower left) dressed in high fashion finery. Doll wears polka-dot blouse, solid color skirt and sailor hat perched on carefully-cut bangs. The Old West will come in for its share of Christmas through sheriff's outfits, covered wagons and games like this one (lower right). It's a board game which turns players into deputies on the trail of outlaws.

in order to give his opponents a chance to hang themselves and true enough he knew that both North and South were gallant defenders, but West should also have realized that his opponents had found a diamond fit and just might be able to make their contract.

This was the case. Dummy showed up with both minor suit kings in back of West and with trumps breaking two-two South had no way to lose his contract.

Bad Bidding All Around

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

If West had made his normal opening bid of one no-trump the chances are that the bidding would have gone pass-pass-pass and North would have opened a heart whereupon West would make several no-trump and win the rubber.

Instead, West chose to open one club and this let North into the bidding, at the one level. There was nothing very sound about the one-heart overcall but North's opponents did have a 60-part score. Similarly South stuck his neck out the proverbial mile when he bid two diamonds but he also knew about that rubber bonus.

West's double of three diamonds was ill advised. True enough he had opened one club

Chrysler Plants Near Full Capacity As Strike Ends

DETROIT (AP) — Assembly lines at Chrysler Corp. plants were turning out 1959 car models at nearly full capacity again today after white collar workers accepted terms of a new three-year contract which ended a six-day strike.

The United Auto Workers Union notified the company Monday night that the strikers — clerical workers, draftsmen and inspectors — had accepted terms of the agreement hammered out in marathon bargaining sessions over the weekend.

Picket lines set up by the 8,000 white collar workers prevented most of the rest of the company's 95,000 employees from reporting to production lines last week. Only a few supplier plants and the company's non-automotive facilities continued to operate during the walkout.

Chrysler and the UAW came to an agreement last Oct. 1 on a three-year pact covering production workers. But white collar employees held out for a separate contract, claiming inequities.

The company said the new agreement would give the office group a wage increase of $2.53 a week, or three per cent, whichever is larger, as well as a new severance pay plan, improved supplemental unemployment benefits and a pension increase, plus other fringe gains.

Under the old contract, Chrysler said, wages for white collar workers ranged from $319 a month to $903.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Now is the time for all good city dwellers to come to the aid of the suburbanite.

Not as a matter of philanthropy — but as a matter of enlightened self-interest.

America's great cities are threatened by many things — ranging from smog to traffic jams and slum-blight. But those of us who love city life are aware of a new peril.

Suburban Exodus

It is in the form of an exodus from the suburbs back to the city, a reversal of the huge postwar migration of population out from the center of the city to its fringes.

Ronald Halfacre, the typical suburbanite, now wants to come back home. He has discovered many a worm in his paradise out where the fresh air begins.

He moved to the suburbs a dozen years ago full of disdain for the big city and looking for a better way of life.

"Out there in the ozone zone things are different," Ronald said. "The schools are better. You live a healthier life, nearer to nature. Out there a neighbor's a real pal."

For some years Ronald actually believed all that guff himself.

But time has caught up with Ronald and his vision of a frontier utopia just beyond the city's pale.

Schools Crowded

That is why it is high time for us who remained steadfastly loyal to our cities to organize now a Society for the Amelioration of the Condition of Suburbanites.

His taxes have gone up, up, up.

He has to ride an auto, a train and a bus to reach his job. The schools in the suburbs are more crowded than those in the city.

His wife complains she is nothing but a chauffeur for him and the kids. He needed no car in the city. He has to have two in the suburbs.

"There's nothing to do out here. In the city there was always something to do. There aren't even any parks" out here. A city's got parks.

Ronald himself is weary of traveling from one outdoor barbecue pit to another at mealtime. He is weary of being stung by mosquitoes and local repai' men.

That healthy outdoor life also has begun to undermine his system.

He is tired of digging his way out of snowdrifts in winter; the joy of do-it-yourself wallpapering has palled. He is bored with the gossip of nosy neighbors, who seem to regard his home left as a kind of neighborhood television program.

Seeks Security

It is no wonder that Ronald Halfacre pines for the comfort, security and serenity of the city, where a man can solve any emergency by a phone call to the janitor.

That is why it is high time for us who remained steadfastly loyal to our cities to organize now a Society for the Amelioration of the Condition of Suburbanites.

Do you know a Ronald Halfacre?

Why not mail him a tinned ham to help him over Thanksgiving? Give him a pat on the back; send him a "get well" card.

Write him a letter saying: "It's you pioneering fellows out there on the frontier of civilization who are doing so much to keep the American spirit alive. I know you won't let the nation down by giving up."

If necessary, even lend him money to keep him out there.

For if 10 million Ronald Halfacres ever abandon the suburbs at once and start moving back, city life will again become as noisy, crowded and uncomfortable as well, as it now has become in the suburbs.

Two Are Identified As Victims of Fire

MONTREAL (AP) — Two New York State girls have been identified as victims of an apartment-house fire that took 16 lives here.

Dorothy Madisson, 19, and Dona Van Demberg, 20, both of Corinth, Saratoga County, N. Y., died in the fire Nov. 9.

They had been listed among the missing. Their bodies were identified Monday as authorities completed identification of all victims.

The girls were visiting friends in the building when the fire broke out.

Club Is Defending UCAL Championship

Onteora Central school's hopes of repeating as UCAL basketball champion are not overly bright as Coach Ed Witko puts his candidates through their paces. The Boiceville club opens its season Friday night at Cairo.

Five top notch performers are missing from last year's great club, which won 15 and lost three and reached the semi-finals of the section nine tournament before being eliminated. Gone are Artie Gribbins, now playing for New Paltz State Teachers college; Norm Boggs, enrolled at Hamilton College; Charlie Cane, a student at New York University; Bruce Gordon, enrolled at the University of Michigan and John Wetterau, enrolled at Hamilton. All except Wetterau were first string performers.

Holdovers, all seniors, are Bruce Wiederspiel, Tom McCrosson, Bob Shulman, Dave Janick, Terry Grant, Herb Krein, and Eddie Caruso. All except Janick and Caruso are lettermen, so Coach Witko has some experienced boys with which to build his club around.

Jayvee Candidates

Several jayvee players are competing for a varsity position. They include Ronnie Wendt, John Apuzzo, Harold Trowbridge, Dick Bartsch, Lenny Muhlich, Rudy Hellenschmidt and Ralph Matos. The Onteora coach plans on carrying twelve players.

Witterau rates Willkill and Highland as the teams to beat in the circuit, but he tabs the overall league as tough and feels any club has a chance to win. Onteora's first loop tilt isn't until Dec. 12, and by then its chances should be clearly established.

Green Bay Coach Has Problems

By CHUCK CAPALDO

Associated Press Sports Writer
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Ray "Scooter" McLean, coach of the drooping Green Bay Packers, has reached the point where he might just as well pick his starting quarterback by the old eenie-meenie-miney-mo routine.

The results are the same. The Packers go right on losing National Football League games.

They have scored just 17 points in their last 3 games—and lost all 3. Their overall record is 1-6, worst in the league.

Lately, McLean has been starting Bart Starr and Vito Parilli in alternate games and then using rookie Joe Francis in the fourth quarter just long enough for him to get his feet wet.

Vito, better known as Babe, quarterbacked the Packers to their only victory, a 38-35 squeaker over the Eagles. Before that game—and since—the Babe has been his usual, unpredictable self.

McLean is loath to put the finger on anybody for Green Bay's sorry season, but he admits, "There is no consistency at quarterback."

"I guess I have to find one that's hot for the day," he said. "All we can do is just go along and hope for the best."

Dartmouth-Princeton Game Decides Ivy League Honors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The two games that mean the most to the Ivy League are both on top this weekend and both were the center of activity Monday.

From a practical standpoint the biggest is at Princeton where Dartmouth meets the Tigers for the Ivy title. Then there is the great traditional struggle between Yale and Harvard in Cambridge, Mass.

The Big Green started working on defenses against Princeton's single-wing attack. Coach Bob Blackman will have his freshmen run single-wing plays during the week in an attempt to orient his team with an offense they're yet to face.

Blackman also counted on Roger Hanlon, with a broken nose, and halfback Jim Burke, with a neck injury, as being set for Saturday's replay for the 1957 title held by Princeton.

They did a lot of work preparing at New Haven and Cambridge too but someone got out the statistics book to see if there would be any indication from past performance how the clubs would make out.

It was a waste of time. Basing Yale's chances or performances after facing Princeton, which tri-

LSU Holds First Spot

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Louisiana State, the nation's only major college football team still unbeaten and untied, has opened up a wide lead in the race for the national championship in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

With the season drawing to a close, a big vote of 183 writers and TV-radio men left LSU the unquestioned leader. Despite its close call against Mississippi State, which LSU barely topped 7-6, the No. 1 team polled 114 points.

Unless Tulane is able to upset Louisiana State in Saturday's finale, the Tigers will wind up with a perfect 10-0 record.

Iowa Drops

Auburn moved up to second place in the Baltimore upset of two weeks ago that hoisted the Giants into a tie with the Cleveland Browns. Only Stroud is a sure bet to be available when the Giants begin their "win-em-all-or-out" drive against Washington this weekend.

Brown — and halfback Alex Webster and tackle-guard Jack Stroud — out of action, the Giants blew their share of the Eastern lead in that nightmare at Pittsburgh Sunday, won by the Steelers 31-10.

All three first liners were injured in the Baltimore upset of two weeks ago that hoisted the Giants into a tie with the Cleveland Browns. Only Stroud is a sure bet to be available when the Giants begin their "win-em-all-or-out" drive against Washington this weekend.

Brown, a 6 foot 3, 245-pounder, suffered a fractured cheekbone in the Colt game. He was released from the hospital Monday, but is still troubled by dizzy spells and a sinus condition. Brown will work out today, but Dr. Francis Sweeney, team physician, doubted he'll be ready for Sunday's game.

Whether the Giants are out of the race depends on what they do against Washington and Philadelphia and Detroit. They have to beat all three to have any hope of forcing a title playoff in the close out game with Cleveland December 14.

Cleveland has a 6-2 record. The Giants are 5-3. Each has four games left.

Syndicate Forms To Keep Baseball Alive in Albany

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A group of baseball fans is forming a community-wide syndicate to keep the Albany Senators in the Class A Eastern League.

Attendance at the team's home games has declined steadily in recent years.

Attorneys Ben Ungerman and Charles Torche announced Monday night that a group of 10 to 12 men had pledged or donated $1,000 to $2,500 each as working capital.

Ungerman said an additional 25 investors were being sought to join the nucleus of what was termed the "community committee."

Tom McCaffrey, who has operated the team since 1937, will continue at its head. He said that "in all probability" a working agreement between the team and the Kansas City Athletics of the American League would be continued.

The organizing group for community ownership will lay its plans before a meeting of Eastern League officials Sunday in New York City.

Dial Nearing New Rice Mark

HOUSTON (AP) — It could be said Rice end Buddy Dial had a bad day in Saturday's 28-21 upset of the Owls by the Texas Aggies. He caught only five passes and not one was good for more than 30 yards.

"We thought we did a good defensive job on Dial," A&M back Luther Hall said. "The longest (pass he caught) was for 30 yards but that's not long for Dial."

"He's so fast and he gets behind you so quick and maneuvers so well, you just have to respect him when he goes out."

Duddy, of Magnolia, Tex., has hauled in 63 passes for 1,148 yards and 11 touchdowns in his college career. With two games remaining, he is within reach of every Rice receiving record.

If he can catch a touchdown pass in each game, he'll tie Froggi Willi's 13 touchdowns, achieved over four seasons against Buddy's three.

Dial needs only one catch to tie Bill Howton's school record of 6 receptions. Howton is now with the Green Bay Packers.

Jim Thorpe Is Named To Indian Hall of Fame

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Famed Jim Thorpe, who died five years ago, has been named to the National Indian Hall of Fame.

Harvard coach John Yovicis needed no special gimmick to give his team incentive for Saturday's game. He simply reminded them that they lost 54-0 in New Haven last year.

Yovicis said halfback Tom Lawton, out for a week with an ankle injury, reported back and is ready.

His alternate, Art Lavallee, has a shoulder separation and is finished for the season. The Eli also have center and linebacker Mike Pyle off the injury list.

Yale's chief scout Harry Jacinski told the team that "Harvard is the most improved club in the Ivy League," citing mainly a solid defense.

Harvard coach John Yovicis needed no special gimmick to give his team incentive for Saturday's game. He simply reminded them that they lost 54-0 in New Haven last year.

Yovicis said halfback Tom Lawton isn't fully recovered from injury, and is not being counted on for the Yale game. However, four other injured, including starting end Stu Hershon, are expected to see action.

Sugar Bowl Committee Slated to Meet Today

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Sugar Bowl Executive Committee meets today to discuss possible opponents for Louisiana State University in the Jan. 1 game.

LSU, the nation's top team for the fourth straight week, has not been invited officially to the 25th annual game. But the unbeaten, untied Tigers appear certain of an invitation regardless of the outcome of Saturday's Tulane ending game here against Tulane.

Selection of the Sac and Fox Indian, America's outstanding athlete of the first half century, was made Monday by the board of directors.

Bathgate Is Tied For First in Loop

MONTREAL (AP) — Boston's Don McKenney and Johnny Bucyk, both anchored in 18th place a week ago, have broken loose on a startling spree that has them pressing the leaders in the National Hockey League scoring race.

Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers and Ed Litzenberger of the Chicago Black Hawks share the lead with 20 points. McKenney and Montreal's Henri Richard are next with 18. Bucyk and Montreal's Maurice Richard and Berne Geoffrion have 17.

The scoring race, unusual enough with the Canadiens shut out of the lead (although they hold 5 of the top 10 positions), was really jolted when McKenney picked up 9 points on 6 goals and 3 assists and his Bruin mate, Bucyk, bagged 8 points on 4 goals and 4 assists last week. They counted 10 of Boston's 15 goals for the week and McKenney tied Bathgate for the lead in goals scored.

Bathgate, who gets the nod over Litzenberger on a goals basis, picked up 4 points, 3 on goals. Litzenberger's 4 points came on 4 goals.

Henri Richard is the leader in assists with 15.

Terry Sawchuk of the Detroit Redwings retained his edge as the leading goal-tender with a 2.25 goals-against average.

Spokesman for the Rangers is Tom Johnson, who has been a good defensive job on Dial," A&M back Luther Hall said. "The longest (pass he caught) was for 30 yards but that's not long for Dial."

Tigers Retain Olympic Lead

Tigers maintained first place in the YMCA Junior Olympic program by trouncing the Sioux, 10-1, in floor hockey. In other time, the Jaguars nipped the Lions, 6-5, and Thunderbirds nosed out Apaches, 2-0.

Jack Baltz set a new individual scoring record by collecting all 10 goals for the Tigers. In accounting for the entire team's total, Baltz scored 3 in the first quarter; 4 in the second and 3 in the third. Art Moyer scored the lone Sioux tally.

Pete Lewis and Earl Kirshner tallied five goals each to send the Jaguars and Lions into overtime, when Don Temple's goal broke it up. John Senior and Bob Bruce scored the two points for the Thunderbirds.

After six weeks of the 10-week Olympic competition, the Tigers lead with 73 points. Trailing in order are: Sioux 56; Thunderbirds, 50; Jaguars, 47; Apaches, 40; Lions, 40. Eighty-four boys are engaged in the program.

Comets Tighten Hockey Lead

Comets trounced the Jets, 4-2, to take undisputed possession of first place in the YMCA Floor Hockey league.

Mike Schoonmaker scored three of the Comet markers. Bob Baxter and Bill Kennedy had a goal each for the Jets.

Zips and Rockets battled three overtime periods in a futile attempt to break a 1-1 deadlock.

Chuck Davide scored for the Zips and Gary Van Etten countered for the Rockets in the first tie of the season.

Bob Pettit Sets Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Pettit of St. Louis surpassing the record set by the incomparable George Mikan, is the first player in National Basketball Assn. history to average 30 points a game at any stage of the season.

Pettit currently ranks third in the league scoring race with 270 points in 9 games, right on the 30-point-a-game button. Mikan had a 9-game pace of 29.3 in 1950.

The Hawk star trails in the battle for scoring honors only because he has played in fewer games than the leaders.

Yardley Leads

Detroit's George Yardley, who has seen action in 12 games, tops the point-getters with 290 for a 24.2 average. Minneapolis rookie Elgin Baylor is second with 285 points for a 23.8 average.

Fourth in scoring is Philadelphia's Paul Arizin, who has pumped in 253 points in 9 contests for a 28.1 average, second only to Pettit.

Kenny Sears of the New York Knickerbockers maintained his lead in field goal accuracy with .519 mark, statistics released today show. Boston's Bill Sharman is the leader in free-throw percentage at .897.

Baylor is out front in rebounds with 193 in 12 games for a 16.1 average. Dick McGuire of Detroit leads in assists with 92 for a 7.7 game average.

Vejar Extends Streak to Four

BOSTON (AP) — Chico Vejar is winning again now that he has his good luck charm, Charlie Goldman, back with him.

The 27-year-old Stamford, Conn., boxer made it four in a row since the return of Goldman as his manager when he gained a technical knockout Monday night over Joe Denucci.

Vejar, the sensation of television at the start of the decade, won 30 in a row under Goldman, including 21 by knockouts. When Charlie left to be the trainer for his good luck charm, Charlie Goldman, back with him.

The end of the scheduled nine rounder came at 1:14 of the sixth when Referee Jimmy McCarron said no more as blood gushed from cut over Joe's left eye.

• The Old Colonials:

Announcement of the testimonial for Justice Harry E. Schirick in January revived memories of the first time we saw the legendary ball club. It was a dark, cloudy afternoon at the old Fair Grounds and the Philadelphia Phillies with the venerable Cy Williams, the National League's home run king, in the Phillies lineup. Rube Forsthe, the lanky Rhinebeck submarine pitcher, stopped Williams cold that day. So did the weather, as the aging veteran was removed in the late innings. It also recalled another big day when Babe Ruth joined the Colonials for a post-season exhibition against Bay Ridge. Ruth didn't home a run that day, either. The late Matty Deegan stole the show with a solo shot homer off Johnny Enzmann to give the Colonials a 1-0 triumph. The next day Ruth played in Montreal and slammed three homers!

Shoulder Level Is Limit

HANK LAUMAN
"By its own momentum"

Eleventh of an instructional series written for NEA Service and The Kingston Daily Freeman by champions.

By HANK LAUMAN
Match Game Champion

With the completion of the third step, the ball should be at the top of the backswing, arriving there by its own momentum.

The backswing should be no higher, preferably lower, than shoulder level.

An exaggerated backswing usually caused by pushing the ball away from the body too violently in the first step, results in a ball that is very difficult to control.

The bowler usually reaches the foul line on his fourth step with the ball well back of his left knee so that the ball must be forced through to the release point by sheer muscle power, and it cannot be directed properly. Either hold the ball in a lower starting position or employ a shorter pushaway to correct this fault.

Although it is a less common error, too short a backswing also can prevent a good delivery. This makes it impossible to swing the ball forward with any speed and in most cases the ball will be

"dumped" short of the foul line. Hold the ball higher in the stance or use a longer push-away to carry the ball higher in the backswing.

Italian Buys Act Trotter

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — Buckeye Demon, one of the nation's leading trotters, is being shipped to new owners in Italy.

The four-year-old horse has been sold to John Gambi of Ravenna, Italy, by its owners, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Hoyt of East Dorset, Vt., and Lewis and Emil Kallil of Bethel, Conn. The two couples operate Battenkill Stable.

The purchase price reportedly exceeded $55,000. The exact amount was not disclosed Monday of the sale. The horse has been at Yonkers Raceway.

Buckeye Demon is the son of Demon Hanover, winner of the 1948 Hambletonian and was second to Hickory Smoke in two heats of the 1957 Hambletonian.

Buckeye Demon's speeds for the mile include 2:00 1-5 over the three-quarter mile track at Vernon Downs in the Empire State Classics and 2:02 3-5 over the half-mile track at Saratoga Raceway.

Although it is a less common error, too short a backswing also can prevent a good delivery. This makes it impossible to swing the ball forward with any speed and in most cases the ball will be

Tillson Amateur Competition Set Wednesday Night

Competitions for the Ted Mack Original Amateur Hour will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Tillson School auditorium, Tillson, sponsored by the Rosendale-Tillson Post, American Legion.

Tickets for the event, which will feature 23 different acts, are available at the U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office, 259 Fair Street, or at the Roxy Barber Shop, Rosendale.

The show has five acts which have won first prize on other shows, it was reported by Pete Costa, adjutant of Legion Post 1219, the sponsoring organization.

It will also feature other acts, such as Pete Mathews, who is well-known throughout the valley for his fine banjo playing, plus the Cascades, the Ross twins with their accordions, and other talent from Highland, New Paltz, Tillson, Rosendale and Kingston.

Assisting Costa in presenting the show is Sgt. Larry Snyder, recruiting officer for the Kingson office, U. S. Air Force. Snyder has presented shows in Florida and has assisted with local shows for the March of Dimes. He will serve as chairman for the show this year.

Master of ceremonies will be Frank Mallon, who has established a fine reputation for his versatile singing imitations. Among his best-known imitations are those of Perry Como, Arthur Godfrey and Nat King Cole.

Four winners will be chosen to compete in auditions for the privilege of appearing on the Ted Mack Show.

Quemoy Area Quiet

TAIPEI (AP)—The offshore island shooting lapsed into silence again today and the Nationalists or much-battered Quemoy made plans to reopen primary schools.

One school in the center of the island already has resumed classes despite the bombardment from Communist coastal guns on alternate days. Nationalist authorities said 20 primary schools would start a delayed fall semester Thursday.

The schools were shut down after the Red guns on the mainland began heavy bombardment Aug. 23.

Pike Addresses Rotary Club On 27,000 Mile Orient Trip

A 27,000 mile trip that carried him to Japan, Formosa and other parts of the Orient in his capacity as a United States Air Force illustrator was graphically described to members of Woodstock Rotary by John Pike last night at the Holiday Country Inn.

The prominent Woodstock Illustrator, artist and water color specialist, who has made trips to various parts of the world in behalf of the historical division of the USAF, said this recent aerial safari was by far the most interesting.

Leaving Woodstock on Oct. 9, Pike was back home within three weeks. He took copious notes and photographs which later will be transformed into paintings which will hang in the Air Force museum in the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs. Previously he had visited Europe, Thule, Greenland and Ecuador and Colombia in South America on assignment.

Pike, a member of the American Society of Illustrators, is given first class transportation, rations and quarters by the Air Force on these trips, but no remuneration. He visits several countries and is asked to paint his impressions of these countries from a historical standpoint.

Given Wide Latitude
The artists are given the widest latitude in their interpretations. Pike said.

Pike emplaned from Albany on Oct. 9, went to Washington where takeoff was delayed because of fog, departing for San Francisco at 11 p.m. The next day he was winging across the Pacific. He had a one-day stopover in Tokyo then proceeded to Okinawa, Taipei and other spots.

An interesting question-and-answer period followed Pike's formal speech. Asked if he had formed any conclusions about the politics of these countries than I did before I left Woodstock." He said there is terrific cooperation between the Chinese and U. S. personnel in the Orient whom Pike described as "brilliant."

Pike said he was thrilled by a presentation of Chinese "wings" to American pilot trainees, attending the ceremony with General Dean, commanding officer of the 13th Air Force. Most of the Chinese pilots are Texas-trained, Pike said, recalling amusing conversations with Chinese pilots "speaking English with a Texas accent."

High Praise for Formosa
"Formosa is a country of indescribable beauty," Pike told his listeners. "It has mountains ranging to 13,000 feet; beautiful groves of mulberry trees, three rice seasons a year and innumerable other splendors. It is easy to see why this nation is coveted by the Communists."

Pike also saw first hand the newest types of U. S. combat planes, including the F-104 which he said is 55 feet long, has a 7-foot wing and an engine that spreads through 46 of the 55 feet. It can soar to 1500 miles an hour and lands at 190 knots.

The Woodstock artist also sat on the opening game of the baseball series between the St. Louis Cardinals and Japanese All Stars in a box occupied by Mrs. Ken Boyer and Mrs. Stan Musial is the next thing to the emperor to the Japanese," Pike observed. He returned with the Japanese program on the game in which Musial's picture appeared several times. He also described the colorful cere-
